Consulted APJs Eric Grimes and Rich Torczon on 1/10/06, they suggested making a rejection alleging the applicant was estopped from patenting the claims because of a procedural issue, that they could have asked that these claims be added to the interference (see final rejection mailed 9/8/05).	11/14/2006	RAW
Consulted APJs Grimes and Torczon again, on 8/15/06, they agreed with attorney's argument that the substantive issue boiled down to a swearing-behind issue. The APJs indicated that where the examiner is convinced the applicant had antedated Brake and had claims that met all statutes, the application would be allowable.	11/14/2006	RAW
